DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's response filed April 28, 2009 has been received and considered. However, the examiner's position outlined previously is maintained and is repeated below.

Reissue Applications

2. The reissue oath/declaration filed with this application is defective (see 37 CFR 1.175 and MPEP § 1414) because of the following:

The declaration filed February 7, 2008 recites "I acknowledge the duty to disclose information that is material to the examination of this application". However, the requirement is to "disclose to the Office all information known to the person to be material to patentability", see 37 C.F.R. 1.63.

3. Claims 1-20,22-35,39,41,48 are rejected as being based upon a defective reissue declaration under 35 U.S.C. 251 as set forth above. See 37 CFR 1.175.

The nature of the defect(s) in the declaration is set forth in the discussion above in this Office action.

4. Claim 48 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Pannu v. Storz Instruments Inc., 258 F.3d 1366, 59 USPQ2d 1597 (Fed. Cir. 2001); Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to claim subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope of claim subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue application.

Claim 48 attempts to recapture subject matter previously surrendered by applicant. In the amendment filed December 14, 1998 applicant argued on page 19 thereof "... there is no suggestion of blending the pressure and position signals, and in particular there is no suggestion to blend the pressure and position signals in the manner recited in claims 17 and 18. Accordingly Applicant's believe that claims 17 and 18 are patentable over Steiner et al....". Although claims 17 and 18 do not use the terms "pressure signal" and "position signal", specifically, the "pressure signal" in the arguments refers to the "force signal" (in the claims) and the "position signal" refers to the "stroke signal".

It is not just the blending of any two signals which rendered the parent claims allowable, it is the blending of the "pressure" and "position" signals, as applicant's argued in the aforementioned response. Therefore, now by claiming a "second signal" in the reissue application, there is improper broadening, thus the claim is subject to recapture.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed April 28, 2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's remarks have been considered but the recapture rejection is believed to be proper and is maintained for the reasons discussed above.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
